AT GEORGIA SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY

Perhaps you need to strengthen your skills for a better job or enhance your chances for promotion within your organization. Maybe you just want the personal satisfaction of gaining knowledge in a field about which you are passionate.

Whatever your reason for seeking an advanced degree, leaving your responsibilities to rejoin the campus lifestyle is not a viable choice.

Now there's another option. Online study is an increasingly popular and accepted means by which to earn your master's or doctoral degree – right from your own home at your own pace.

Georgia Southern University offers fully accredited advanced programs in business, health professions and education which come backed by the quality reputation of a University degree.

COMMITTED FACULTY

The culture of Georgia Southern is one of “student-centeredness.” Professors are not only nationally recognized experts in their fields, but are also accessible to students in and out of the classroom setting.

RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES

Georgia Southern students are given every opportunity to work alongside professors conducting research in the field.

CUTTING-EDGE TECHNOLOGIES

We utilize the latest online programs and Web site technology, making it easy for you to connect with your instructors. If you have basic computer skills like word processing and simple Web searches, online learning at Georgia Southern is for you.

“Georgia Southern has a solid track record of producing committed and skilled nurse practitioners. The Doctor of Nursing Practice will give me new tools to use in the clinical arena which equip me to be a more knowledgeable and innovative provider of care.”
